Form: Reception desk for hairdresser

The Form reception desk distinguishes itself thanks to the curved shape of the stylish melamine structure, with this distinct design offering a soft style, while at the same time the materials create a sense of strength and durability. This reception desk certainly attracts attention, thanks to the large, curved front panel being upholstered from a choice of colours, making the Form completely suited to many different salon styles. The Form is available in four different versions; reception desk, reception desk with side storage cabinet, reception desk with side display cabinet, and reception desk with both side storage and side display cabinets. Moreover, the Form is available with white ash or wengé structure.

Side display with lighting:

4w - 400 lumen
