Form: Reception desk for hairdresser

The Form reception desk distinguishes itself thanks to the curved shape of the stylish melamine structure, with this distinct design offering a soft style, while at the same time the materials create a sense of strength and durability. This reception desk certainly attracts attention, thanks to the large, curved front panel being upholstered from a choice of upholstery, making the Form completely suited to many different salon styles. The Form is available in four different versions; reception desk, reception desk with side storage cabinet, reception desk with side display cabinet, and reception desk with both side storage and side display cabinets.
